

Do you know it well enough to want to change it?

Does it hamper you so much you want to change it?

Has it been used so much you want to change it?

Think about this again on August 6 at 8:15 AM.

You and the Constitution

THE CONSTITUTION OF JAPAN Article 9: RENUNCIATION OF WAR

Aspiring sincerely to an international peace based on justice and order, the Japanese people forever renounce war as a sovereign right of the nation and the threat or use of force as means of settling international disputes.

In order to accomplish the aim of the preceding paragraph, land, sea, and air forces, as well as other war potential, will never be maintained. The right of belligerency of the state will not be recognized.

The way to rebuild Japan is to improve social security. Stop wasting tax money! Cut the defense budget! (Yukio Yoshida)

We are duty-bound to protect Article 9. It grew out of lessons learned from the last war Japan started. (Tomaki and Kiyomi Karasawa)

Newspaper ads are effective. They interrupt control of the media and the komeito coalition. (Yukari, Akiko and Kyoko Maehata)

Father killed by atomic bomb. Mother an early survivor. Aunt's family lost completely. These are my reasons to resist war laws. (Ken Harada)

What is the Emergency Clause?

The emergency clause ignores our constitutional protection of human rights. (Yoshiyuki Abe)

I want a broad coalition with opposing parties in joint struggle. (Hiroko Nishihara)

Abolish nuclear weapons and nuclear power plants! From Fukushima to Hiroshima. (Jotaro Wakamatsu)

I pray that no SDF personnel will be killed in action because of the new security laws. (Keizo Matsui)
